

Sinclair Broadcasting's attempt at swaying elections is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

They use public airwaves free of charge and must serve the public interest. Their focus on the bottom line can only hurt our democracy.

This company's attempt to sway an election demonstrates why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

I ask that you take firm action to better manage such abuses. Thank you.
